lean on me, let me also lean on you.
let our minds, bodies, and souls merge into one.
mutual understanding flows between us, too soon to be lost forever.

townspeople and students came together speak to me for a moment; i find myself alone.

exchange ideas,
 share ourselves.
 let our minds merge into one.

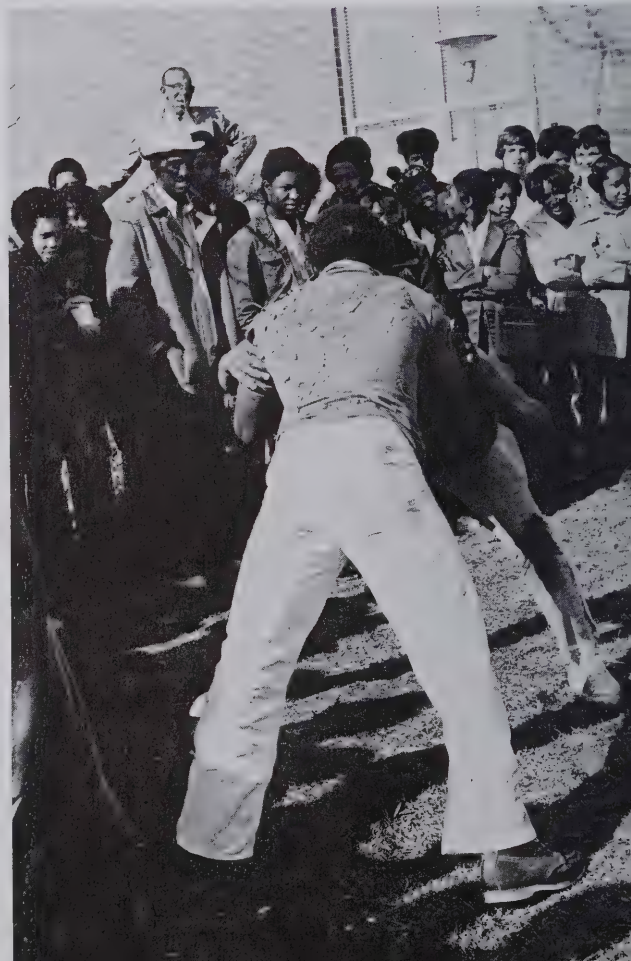

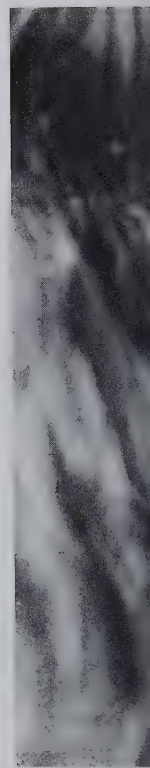

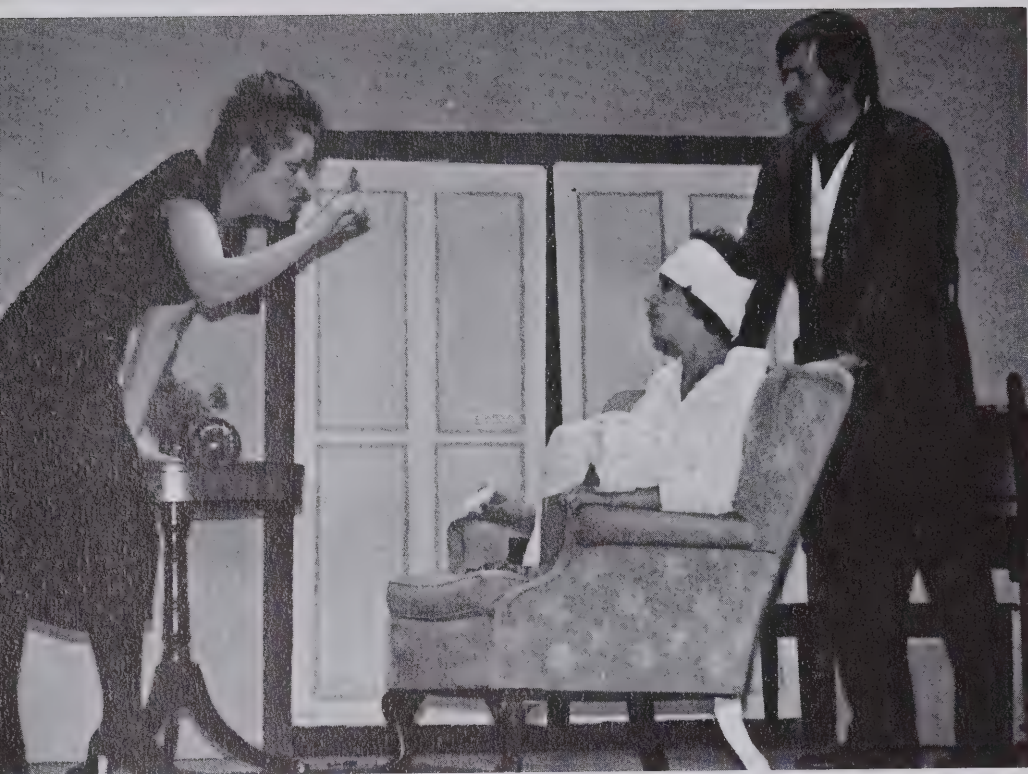

ear Tiner,
 since French was such a significant (and exciting!) part this year, I'm signing next to my French class. Remember all of Rabelais'
 was it M. de Montaigne's?)
 helpful advice
 I'm sure it will help you
 your future

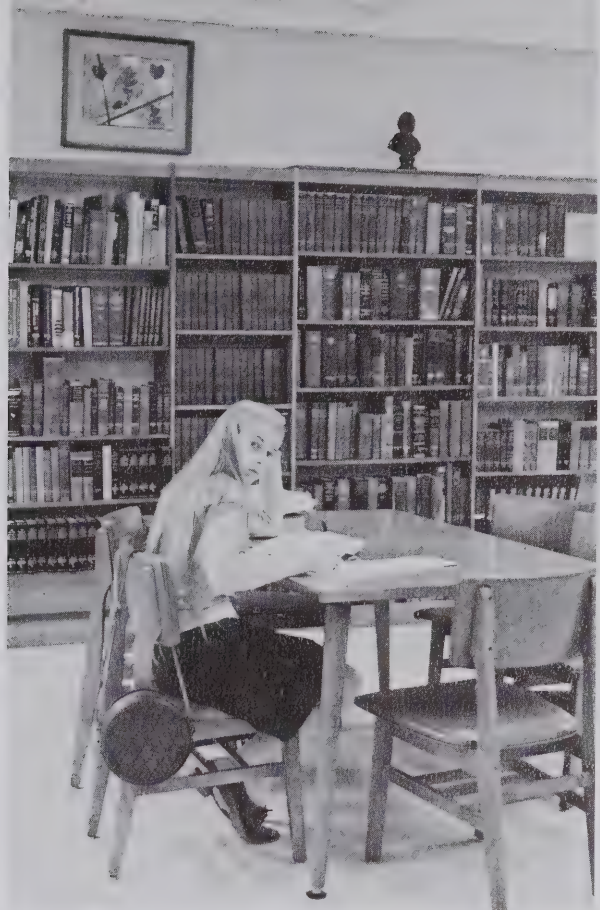

I'll come see you next year, at least to see Martha Butt, or whoever she'll be. It was a productive year, especially for M.O.N.A. and all our nifty honor societies n'êtes pas dans la lune!

Suzie

they cling together dancing, laughing, singing in a desperate attempt to deny their abject solitude. dissolve the walls of human pride.
lean on me.

academics

teach me half the gladness that the mind must know such harmonious madness from my lips would flow the world would listen then as i am listening now.

the athlete —
 striving to perform with flawless skill. straining his mind to coordinate his body to a perfection greater than before. his soul bathed in victory, bearing the fruits of his perfection, or racked with the torment of defeat or injury.
 sometimes alone, but more often a part of the crowd, a crowd that praises his abilities.
 this, too, is part of the athlete's endeavor — to be glorified.

band-aid fair

caught up in the excitement of our rapidly improving band, the pta sponsored a carnival to raise money for new equipment for the band. the carnival included a white elephant sale and a bazaar as well as a bake sale. clubs took advantage of the crowds of patrons and set up booths to raise some money of their own. band-aid fair.

chhs played northern on an un-neutral field for the first time in three years for our homecoming. the excitement of the occasion wavered as we were defeated. brighter spots included the beauty court, the parade down franklin and rosemary, our truly good band, and the dance. however, among this spirit of festiveness also lingered the beliefs that homecoming queens and parties are outdated. will this be the last year to record such things?

black history week

an important election year. setting the mood for many activities and thoughts in the school and in the town. the first time eighteen year olds voted for the president.

education 1 is a new type of involvement. students have the chance to look at the other side for a change.

"I think that every person doing what they wish is very outstanding."

"I think choosing outstanding seniors is a good idea since our whole system of values is based on recognition."

"I believe choosing outstanding seniors is stupid, outdated, and not worth my attention. outstanding in what? what are your criteria?"

"I don't like the idea of selecting outstanding students. all are equal, each have endured school, why should a given 8 deserve any more recognition than others?"

"Just because things are traditional doesn't mean they're bad."

the hilllife staff feels there many seniors who possess special talents and are “outstanding” in many different ways. while there were 84 students nominated, 8 seemed to stand out in the eyes of the senior class. they are:

no man is an island, entire of itself, every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main, if a clod be washed away by the sea, europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were,
as well as if a manor of thy friends, every man's death diminishes me

Therefore, send not to know for whom the bell tolls;

it tolls for thee.

Tina -

It has been a good year.
You were always around you have given me, and I'm sorry that I did not give much of myself to you.

I hope to see you next year

Dear Tina:

We've had a good and all too short year. Remember that project we did together? And I'm sure you won't forget the "burlesque" show we put on for Mrs. Sommerfeld today (5/28/13). It's really been a great year - isn't it sad we have to say good-bye? I wish for you

Tina,

You know I didn't want to sign this yet, but I'll make a valiant effort anyway.

I can truthfully say it has been good knowing you, who else could I turn to when I didn't understand the math?

Good Luck and all, I'm sure I'll see you around.

I wish I had gotten to know you

Prudishly Yours,

P.S. Now, a couple of weeks later, it's the last day which means I'll probably make a bit more sense. W them again. But I refuse to believe that you and in July and writing you while I'm at Earlham must say, though, that our activities are often a lit consisting mainly of sighs and groans, for instance. Or want to go ice skating, after all. Or spending 67% o being straight. Perhaps the most unusual of our most people, I have a feeling that I'll never see

You have been a great and real friend to me. I out of the ordinary. Nightly telephone conversations ing to Robin's house and deciding that we didn't our free time worrying about math problems. Or activities. Seeing you just now, fighting with Oscar, o t used to make him so mad. I have horrible dumb things. (What?) Like having all sorts of can't let Warren
this year.

Twice

This is the best reference I ever ate in. Incredibly Waddy Campbell averaged 1.9 yards per carry over the 1971-72 season for the Houston Oilers. Always remember that. His backfield mate was herby Gledys who gained 112 yds rushing against the Washington Redskins. Um

To Tina,

As the year progressed I came to know more and more. In writing this it not good think of ending this friendship too soon.
I hope that you will remember as you progress through UNC and finally into the big world of life

Oh. Well... I remember all the UNC basketball

Brabbe

Thank you for when you explained my math to me. I really can't believe that you and everybody else are graduating - can't wait until that big night comes. Next fall, when you are in school slaving away at your work, I'll come visit you. Next June when I can come and visit me in sunny Florida. I'm still in school and you're out, I hope that you won't need at writing in books in here to remember me by. It's time to go to rehearsals for once upon a mattress. Must go, Mark.

I must have been a hard labor for you in some way, but you have always been a good humor and kindness.
I enjoyed going and just being around. Good luck with your personal slump.

dear Linda,
 I have so much to say that I don't know where to start. I never really knew you until that fateful day last year when we attacked the school in paper bags. Then I realized you are a true prude, & it could only be a matter of time before you founded the CHHS Chapter of the N.P.S. (National Prude Society). From then on it was a whirl of quilting bees, & crochet-parties, & teas, (all ending before 7:30). I can't say how much I enjoyed our social season. My only regret (and disappointment) was that you finally lost your prude status & are even going to the Jr-S which was the original purpose for our Lonely Hearts Club. But I won't mind being alone in this celebration this year. We can come back next year (with paper bags) and roam the halls of CHHS, with tears running down our cheeks. I hope you will still be a prude at heart, no matter your circumstances. Well, have fun at UNC; I hope they have another Larry Miller for you. Keep up your knittin', Honey. Love, Emily B.

Dear Tina,
 it's been a super good knowing you & working with you on the Hillife & being in your classes & being your soul in court. Roubille pas les sèchesmans et B. Berman & Rippawam & le vas trip. J'expecte que vous soyez une notaire fameuse. Je sais que vous aimez UNC. Ne "bus off, Benson" pas. Soyez bonne toujours et avoir de bonne chance. Je regrette que je ne sois pas une bonne Hillife signa. Excusez-moi.
 Love, Karen
